Philip and the Ethiopian

Acts 8

STORY POINT: THE HOLY SPIRIT LED PHILIP TO TELL THE ETHIOPIAN MAN ABOUT JESUS.

An angel told Philip to go to a desert road. So Philip went. On the road was a man from Ethiopia. The man had come to worship in Jerusalem, and now he was on his way home. He sat in his chariot, reading aloud the words of the prophet Isaiah.

The Holy Spirit told Philip to go to the chariot. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked the man.

The official replied, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" Philip sat with him. The official was reading these words from Isaiah:

He was led like a sheep
to the slaughter,
and as a lamb is silent
before its shearer, so He does not open His mouth.

He was treated unfairly,
and His life is taken away.
The official asked, "Was Isaiah talking about himself or someone else?" Isaiah was talking about the Messiah, so Philip began to tell the man the good news about Jesus.

Then the official told the chariot to stop. He and Philip went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. The official continued home, and he was very happy.

Christ Connection: The Ethiopian official knew what the Old Testament prophets said, but he did not understand that they spoke about Jesus. The Holy Spirit led Philip to help the official understand the good news about Jesus: Jesus died on the cross for our sins and was raised from the dead, just like the Old Testament prophets said.
